Dear Ms. Chacona:

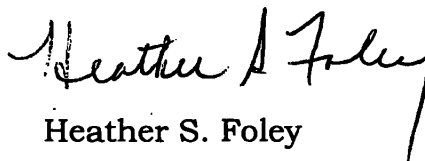

I do apologize. I thought that the Committee's FEC report for July 1, 2010 through September 30, 2010 had been sent to you by certified mail.

The person I entrusted with the duty of mailing our report to you forgot to send it and has finally admitted to me that he simply forgot. We found the report in the back trunk of his car. He is a friend who was trying to be helpful. I should have gone to the Post Office myself and mailed the report to you.

Please find enclosed the report. I very much regret that it wasn't mailed to you as promised. As you can see from the report our receipts were only $14.43 for this past quarter.

All the best.

Sincerely,

Heather S. Foley
